TABLE OF CONTENTS

PROLOGUE

LIST OF AUTHORS AND PARTICIPANTS

I- ICE SHEET MODELLING

Grosswald M.G.	1
Extent and melting history of the late Weichselian ice sheet, the Barents-Kara continental margin
Letréguilly A. and Ritz C.	21
Modelling of the Fennoscandian ice sheet
Whillans I.M. and van der Veen C.J.	47
Controls on changes in the West Antarctic ice sheet
Hoydal O.A.	55
Plastic modelling of glaciers and outlets
Hindmarsh R.C.A.	67
Qualitative dynamics of marine ice sheets

II- ICE SHEET MASS BALANCE

Oerlemans J.	101
Modelling of glacier mass balance
Genthon C.	117
Observations and simulations of temperature and ice accumulation at the surface of Antarctica
Paterson W.S.B.	131
World sea level and the present mass balance of the Antarctic ice sheet
Meier M.F.	141
Ice, climate, and sea level; do we know what is happening?

III- ICE SHEET-OCEAN-ATMOSPHERE INTERACTIONS

Broecker W., Bond G., McManus J.	161
Heinrich events: triggers of ocean circulation change?
Andrews J.T., Tedesco K., Jennings A.E.	167
Heinrich events: chronology and processes, east-central Laurentide ice sheet and NW Labrador Sea

Lehman S.J., Wright D.G., Stocker T.F.	187
Transport of freshwater into the deep ocean by the conveyor
Maier-Reimer E.	211
The driving force of brine rejection on the deepwater formation in the Hamburg LSG OGCM
Jenkins A.	217
The melting of continental ice in the ocean and its impact on surface and bottom waters
Wang, H., Birchfield G.E., Rich J.J.	237
Hydrological cycle scenarios, deep ocean circulation, and century/millennium climate change: a simulation study using an ocean-atmosphere-ice sheet model
Imbrie J.	255
A simple systems model of the major glaciation cycles
Broccoli, A.J. and Manabe S.	271
Climate model studies of interactions between ice sheets and the atmosphere-ocean system
Budd W. and Rayner P.	291
Modelling ice sheet and climate changes through the ice ages
Gallée H., Berger A., Shackleton N.J.	321
Simulation of the climate of the last 200 kyr with the LLN 2D-model
Saltzman B. and Verbitsky M.Y.	343
The late Cenozoic glacial regimes as a combined response to earth-orbital variations and forced and free CO ₂ variations

IV- THE THERMOHALINE CIRCULATION

McWilliams J.C.	363
The delicacy of the oceanic thermohaline circulation
Cessi P. and Young W.R.	375
Multiple equilibria in β -plane thermohaline convection
Wright D.G. and Stocker T.F.	395
Younger Dryas Experiments
Winton M.	417
Deep decoupling oscillations of the oceanic thermohaline circulation
Fichefet T. and Hovine S.	433
The glacial ocean: a study with a zonally averaged, three-basin ocean circulation model

Sakai K. and Peltier W.R. 459
Oscillatory modes of behavior in a simple model of the Atlantic thermohaline circulation

Reeh N. 481
Correlation of Greenland ice-core and ice-margin $\delta(^{18}\text{O})$ records

V- CLIMATE DATA FROM ICE CORES

Waddington E.D., Morse D.L., Grootes P.M., Steig E.J. 499
The connection between ice dynamics and paleoclimate from ice cores:
a study of Taylor Dome, Antarctica

Dahl-Jensen D., Johnsen S.J., Hammer C.U., Clausen H.B., Jouzel J. 517
Past accumulation rates derived from observed annual layers in the GRIP ice core from Summit, Central Greenland

VI- SEA ICE EFFECTS ON CLIMATE SYSTEM EVOLUTION

Ledley T.S. 533
Sea ice: a factor in influencing climate on short and long time scales

Yiou P. and Ghil M. 557
Nonlinear paleoclimatic variability from quaternary records

Cattle H. and Thomson J.F. 579
The Arctic response to CO_2 -induced warming in a coupled atmosphere-ocean
general circulation model

Martinson D.G. 597
Ocean heat and seasonal sea ice thickness in the southern ocean

de Vernal A., Rochon A., Hillaire-Marcel C., Turon J.-L., Guiot J. 611 quantitative reconstruction of sea-surface conditions, seasonal extent of sea-ice cover and meltwater discharges in high latitude marine environments from dinoflagellate cyst assemblages

Paterne M., Duplessy J.-C., Labeyrie L., Arnold M. 623
North Atlantic sea surface salinity, ice melting and abrupt climatic changes

Hibler III W.D. 633
Interannual and climatic characteristics of an ice ocean circulation model

Oberhuber J.M., Holland D.M., Mysak L.A. 653
A thermodynamic-dynamic snow sea-ice model
